

Privacy Policy

Confidentiality and security are core values of Outsteam, so we are committed to ensuring user privacy at all times. In order to comply with the current legal terms and ensure the safety and confidence of all stakeholders, we inform you that this page is the property of BELIEVESTATEGY, LDA. with the tax identification number PT 514117818, based in Rua José Saramago, 5 A, 1675-180 Odivelas, Portugal.

Personal Data

Outsteam ensures transparency in the information and application of best practices in the field of security and protection of personal data. The data that we ask you to register for the Camino for Executives Project are appropriate, relevant and strictly necessary for the purpose for which they are intended, in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/670. Under no circumstances are you obliged to provide them, however, the data marked with a (*) are mandatory. We will use your personal information to manage your application and to contact you in order to disclose the news regarding Camino for Executives, not sharing them with third parties.

I agree to be contacted for the purpose of publicizing the initiatives of the Camino for Executives Project

I authorize Outsteam to store my personal data

On this page you will also find the social media buttons/widgets (Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn) that display content originating from social networks. These buttons allow users to access and interact directly with the social networks that acquire the data related to their visit. You can unsubscribe and subscribe to our communications at any time. Just send us an email to caminoforexecutives@outsteam.com, referring to the intention of revocation.